Government of Maharashtra,
Home Department,
Government Resolution No. NPC 1008/2/CR-6/POL-3,
Mantralaya, Mumbai 400 032.
Dated the 25th July, 2008

READ : Judgment dated 22.9.2006 of the Supreme Court of India in Writ Petition (Civil) No. 310/1996 in Prakash Singh and Others Vs. Union of India and Others.

BACKGROUND : The Government of India had appointed a National Police Commission (NPC) for fresh examination of the role and performance of the police, both as a law enforcing agency and as an institution to protect the rights of citizens enshrined in the Constitution of India. The NPC after examining all the issues in depth, submitted various reports and the final report in 1981. Prakash Singh and Others had filed Writ Petition (Civil) No. 310 of 1996 against Union of India and Others under Article 32 of the Constitution of India for direction to implement the report of the NPC and to frame a new Police Act in order to ensure that the police is accountable essentially and preliminarily to the law of the land and the people.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, while deciding the said Writ Petition by its judgment dated 22.9.2006, has held that it is essential to lay down guidelines to be operative till the new legislation is enacted by State Governments. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has issued directions under Article 32 read with Article 142 of the Constitution of India for the constitution of a State Police Complaint Authority and District Police Complaint Authority in the said judgment.

RESOLUTION : In pursuance of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and till appropriate changes are made in the Bombay Police Act, 1951 and / or other relevant rules on the lines of the Supreme Court directions, the
